

Valley Wide Kayak Club Baja Sea Kayak Adventure

Hosted by Jen Kleck, Aqua-Adventures Owner & BCU 5 Star Kayak Coach

Friday, May 5 to Monday, May 8, 2017

Spend 3 nights & 4 days in gorgeous northern Baja developing coastal kayaking skills in a stunning environment! We'll play amongst the rocks, surf waves, and frolic with seals and dolphins. Participants need to be advanced beginner sea kayakers with good basic rescue skills. Our event is held along a magical stretch of coastline in northern Baja where a rocky peninsula juts into the Pacific. Here, the ocean swell interacts with the rocky, craggy coastline to produce a multitude of play spots for the adventurous kayaker!

Basic Itinerary:

Friday, May 5 - 12 pm : Drive 3 hours to our location at La Bufadora just south of Ensenada. We'll settle into our comfortable bunkhouse overlooking the ocean, have a nice dinner and relax around the bonfire.

Saturday, May 6 - We'll spend the day paddling our kayaks along the beautiful Baja Coastline, exploring the sea caves and the rock gardens. That afternoon we'll shop in La Bufadora, have margaritas in the Cantina Bar & have a delicious dinner!

Sunday, May 7 - More sea kayaking adventures including paddling up close to the famous La Bufadora blowhole! Group dinner in the Bunkhouse!

Monday, May 7 After breakfast and a morning paddle, we'll load up and head back to the US

Cost: $390 includes RT transportation from San Diego in 15 passenger van, 3 night bunk house accommodation, most food (minus a couple meals out), 3 days kayaking instruction. Extra cost $90 to rent plastic kayak for weekend. Passports required.
